

MIKE PERRY TALK — LAND/SEA (TIR/MÔR)

THURSDAY 29 JULY 2021

5 – 6pm: CLIMATE CONVERSATIONS, LED BY EDDC CLIMATE CHANGE OFFICER CATHERINE CAUSLEY

Drop-in early, join the conversation, meet local groups and share your views on East Devon District Council's Climate Emergency plan.

6 - 8pm: ARTIST MIKE PERRY AND CURATOR BEN BORTHWICK IN CONVERSATION

Join us for an insightful conversation discussing the themes of the exhibition in the context of the climate emergency.

Mike Perry's work engages with significant and pressing environmental issues, in particular the tension between human activity and interventions in the natural environment, and the fragility of the planet's ecosystems (be that marine or land).

His work has been included in The Black and White Room at The Royal Academy of Arts, curated by artist Cornelia Parker. Mike Perry has also exhibited at the Venice Biennale and in 2015, received a Creative Wales Award from the Arts Council of Wales.

Ben Borthwick is Head of Creative Programme at KARST Creative Arts Space, Plymouth and an independent curator and writer with an expertise in contemporary art, modernism and sound.
